OUR WINEMAKER

Felipe Ortiz

Agronomist Enologist Engineer, scholar of the prestigious association of agronomist engineers of Chile (ANIAE).

Felipe has developed his career in France, USA, Australia and Chile, he maintains that the Maule Valley has a variety of characteristics that ensure:

"Wines of terroir expression, wide range of variety among them white mineral wines of piedmont regions such as Sauvignon Blanc, elegant Cabernet Sauvignon and Carmenera from the center alluvial zone of the Maule, as well as expressive Malbec, Cabernet Franc and Chardonnay from the coastal zones with granite soil of the valley"

GRAND DOMAINE

SUPER ICONO

It is characterized by its intense and concentrated red, with violet edges.

60% Carmenere
& 40% Malbec

Its aromas evoke an elegant concentration of Maule's Carmenere and its spirit origin in clay soils, which transmits the refined notes of black pepper and spices. The coastal malbec gives freshness, floral character and red fruit. In mouth, has a great concentration, structure and volume. Its mixture of terroirs from Maule generates a certain tension and juiciness, without losing its elegant tannins and its ending is as persistent as scented.
